

Refer a Friend Guidelines

- All accelerated degree completion (CEL) alumni and students currently enrolled in any of our accelerated degree completion programs are eligible to participate.
- The referred individual cannot be a student who has already applied to CEL or has previously requested information about any of our programs.
- A referred applicant must be unconditionally accepted and a declared major into one of the accelerated degree completion programs.
- The referred student must complete one graded accelerated course (three semester hours of credit) in the 2008-2009 academic year (Fall 2008 – Summer 2009). A course with a grade of incomplete (I) or (F), will not be included in the three hours needed to be eligible.
- The $100 voucher will not be awarded until the class grade is received and all necessary tracking has been completed by all internal departments.
- Incentive program began July 3rd, 2006.
- Final approval for the referral will rest with the Director of Enrollment-CEL, Associate Dean-CEL, and the Vice President of Marketing
