Get out your jazz hands and join us for a musical theatre camp at RC! You will work with a team of acting teachers, musical coaches, choreographers and other talented students to explore the genre of musical theatre.

You will spend a week working on songs, characterization, improv, vocal work and choreography, culminating with a showcase performance.

The performance at the end of the session is a high energy, highly entertaining musical revue. It will include repertoire from classic to contemporary musical theatre, with opportunities for solo, duet and ensemble performances.
